

THE WORLD BANK
IBRD • IDA | WORLD BANK GROUP

MOSCOW OFFICE
Bolshaya Molchanovka 36/1,
Moscow, Russia, 121069

September 4, 2017

Dear Mr. Rimsha!

Thank you for your proposal for delivery of a research project within the READ RAS program supported by the World Bank.

After careful consideration, we are glad to inform you that the project "Indicators of the development of students cognitive interests as parameters of quality of school teaching and educational process" that you submitted was selected by the project committee and will be supported. The READ RAS program will provide financing for the project implementation.

Please note that the deliverables you mentioned in your proposal should be submitted on time.

The timetable for delivery of the project outputs is the following:

1. March 15th, 2018. Submission of the draft project report to the World Bank.
2. Before May 15th, 2018. Comments and proposals on modification after the intermediate assessment; and
3. June 1st, 2018. Submission of the final report.

Please make sure that you meet the deadlines. In case these deadlines are not met your team most likely won't be able to work with the World Bank as well as participate in other small grants competitions under the READ RAS.

As proposed by your team the financial arrangement will be the following:

1. Alexander Rimsha -Team Leader will received USD
2. Pavel Bondarev will received USD
3. Igor dendeber will received USD
4. Irene Popova will received USD
5. Elena Kokoreva will received USD
6. Olga Murina will received USD
7. Elena Yujukina will received USD
8. Marina Duzhakova will received USD
9. Natalia Radchenko will received USD
10. Inna Gasperevich will received USD

In order to meet the transparency requirements this letter will be copied to each member of the team.